

HISTORIC SCAVENGER HUNT

Search through our historic city to find the small details of structures shown in these photographs (front and back). Correct entries will be entered in a drawing for $500+ in prizes from our sponsors.

Fill in building name, address, or name of any business that occupied the building.

I was remodeled in 1916 when my owner had his business here.

My original owner was a Captain in the Civil War.

I was home to the Waukesha Post Office until 1914.

My "new" house was constructed in the 1920s to ensure I would live on.

Hidden for years inside my walls was a vault.

I was known as the place for rest, recreation, and health.

I sit just to the North of the former Hill School which was built in 1847.

I am a Fine Brick Italianate structure built in 1876, and my owner was a state senator.

I am a Queen Anne Style structure built in 1892. I still have my carriage barn on the property.

I've been home to a Buick Dealership, a Bowling Alley, and more.

Some people think I am just a gazebo, but I am not.

I look upon one of the most important green spaces in Waukesha County.
